

MIKE ANCILLOTTI HONORED AS OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS BY ONONDAGA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Syracuse, NY (May 2009) – Michael J. Ancillotti, Principal and Executive Vice President of Account Services, Latorra, Paul & McCann Advertising (LP&M), has been named an outstanding alumnus by Onondaga Community College. Ancillotti was inducted with four others as 2009 Alumni Faces Honorees in award ceremonies held at the College on May 5, 2009.

After receiving an A.S. degree in graphic arts from Onondaga in 1982, Ancillotti continued his education at Syracuse University earning a B.F.A. degree from the College of Visual and Performing Arts.

In 1989, Ancillotti joined LP&M where his expertise in a variety of industries and markets has resulted in numerous awards for local, regional, national and international campaigns. He also serves on a number of community and industry boards.

Alumni Faces is an Onondaga Community College initiative honoring “outstanding alumni whose achievements illustrate the transformative power of an Onondaga education and represent the promise of self-discovery that the College commits to every student, every day.” The College’s 25 Alumni Faces honorees, including this year’s inductees, are showcased in the College’s Gordon Student Center and featured on www.sunyocc.edu.

LP&M is a full-service advertising and strategic marketing communications firm serving a variety of local, regional, national and international clients. A member of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, LP&M is headquartered on the tenth floor of the historic University Building in downtown Syracuse, NY.

###